What is a sociopath?

A sociopath is utterly selfish, has no empathy with anyone else and will ruthlessly exploit other's weaknesses for their own benefit.

There is no lie they will not tell, no despicable action they won't take to get what they want.

When caught out, they will move heaven and earth to distance themselves from the consequences of what they've done.

What have the Tory Government done?

- Made themselves and their rich backers even richer than they were in 2008.
- Made the poor much poorer than they were in 2008.
- Deliberately undermined the NHS, starving it of funds and destroying the morale of its staff.
- Remained completely unmoved by the total chaos they have created, or the danger to the people in need of health care provision.
- Persecuted sick people, disabled people and unemployed people — lumping them all together under the heading 'feckless scroungers'.
- Kicked into the long grass any meaningful investigation of organised child abuse by elite politicians and establishment figures.
